

Engage in the COLORADO BIG SUMMER READ

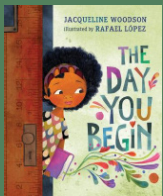

through Books, Arts & Culture

FOR ALL AGES

A shared reading experience across the entire state of Colorado for all ages over the summer centered around a theme, and illustrated by a selection of books, author appearances, activities and discussions to create an immersive, interactive experience that will inspire further reading and conversation. The inaugural theme will be: EMPATHY.

SIX FEATURED AUTHOR EVENTS

All events are free, but you must register at the webpage listed below.

PICTURE BOOK:

Tattered Cover Aspen Grove
Sunday, July 14 at 2pm
The Day You Begin
by Jacqueline Woodson
Discussion & Activity*

MIDDLE GRADE:

Tattered Cover Colfax
Sunday, July 7 at 2pm
Wishtree
by Katherine Applegate
Discussion & Activity*

MIDDLE SCHOOL:

Tattered Cover Colfax
Thursday, July 11 at 6pm
Refugee
by Alan Gratz
Author In Conversation with Panel & Activity*

YOUNG ADULT:

Tattered Cover Colfax
Saturday, July 13 from 2pm - 4pm
Dear Martin
by Nic Stone
Discussion with Author & Writing Workshop*

ADULT FICTION:

Tattered Cover Colfax
Date TBD
All the Birds in the Sky
by Charlie Jane Anders
In Conversation with Author and Editor & Writing Workshop*

ADULT NON-FICTION:

Tattered Cover Colfax
Date TBD
White Rage: The Unspoken Truth of Our Radical Divide
by Carol Anderson
Discussion with Author*

Visit www.tatteredcover.com/colorado-big-summer-read for details!

EST. 1971, DENVER CO

TATTERED COVER
BOOK STORE

tatteredcover.com

COLORADO BIG SUMMER READ
#COempathy