Sunday, November 17, 2:00 pm, Colfax Avenue

Authors Jamie Rife and Don Burns will discuss and sign Journeys Out of Homelessness: The Voices of Lived Experience ($29.95 Lynne Rienner Publishers). How do individuals move from being homeless to finding safe, stable, and secure places to live? What policies are needed to support what worked—and to remove common obstacles?

Fiction Book Talk

Wendy Swallow

Sunday, November 17, 2:00 pm, Historic LoDo

Author Wendy Swallow will discuss and sign Searching for Nora: After the Doll’s House ($16.99 Peavine Mountain Press), a historical fiction novel that tells a powerful tale of redemption, unfolding over four decades in the fjords of Norway and the American frontier. At the end of Henrik Ibsen’s play A Doll’s House, Nora Helmer walks away from her family and comfortable life. In this book, Swallow answers a question that has dogged theater audiences for A Doll’s House: what happened to Nora Helmer?

Political Science Book Talk

Jeffrey Sterling

Monday, November 18, 7:00 pm, Historic LoDo

Jeffrey Sterling is a lawyer and former CIA case officer who was convicted of violating the Espionage Act and was in federal prison in Colorado. He will discuss and sign Unwanted Spy: The Persecution of an American Whistleblower ($28.00 Bold Type Books), the story of his fight for justice and equality in the country he loves. Sterling courageously blew the whistle to Senate investigators about a botched covert operation in Iran. After a few quiet years in Missouri with his wife, he was arrested suddenly and charged with espionage.

Science Book Talk

Erik Asphaug

Monday, November 18, 7:00 pm, Aspen Grove

Erik Asphaug is an author and esteemed planetary geologist. He will discuss and sign When the Earth Had Two Moons: Cannibal Planets, Icy Giants, Dirty Comets, Dreadful Orbits, and the Origins of the Night Sky ($28.99 Custom House), an astonishing exploration of planet formation and the origins of life. Forty billion years ago, the universe exploded and created galaxies and stars. Planetary bodies smashed into each other until solar systems emerged. Curiously, instead of being relatively similar in terms of composition, the planets in our solar system are bewitchingly distinct. In this book, Asphaug takes us on an exhilarating tour through the farthest reaches of time and our galaxy to find out why.

Law Book Talk

Alec Karakatsanis

Friday, November 22, 7:00 pm, Historic LoDo
